Mission Statement

St. Frances Cabrini Church is a Roman Catholic parish community with ethnic diversity. Our central focus is the Eucharist from which all aspects of parish life emanate. Being a Spirit filled, prayerful and proactive parish, we foster Christian family life, evangelization, and the spiritual nourishment of all parishioners, both young and old. We endeavor to follow the example of St. Frances Cabrini and attend to all God's children in their temporal and spiritual needs in order to alleviate their suffering. We do all in the name of Jesus who is Lord and Savior of us all.

Our parish enjoys a rainbow of activities for all ages in Liturgy and in Service. If you wish to join or volunteer, please contact the rectory.

August 7, 2016
19th Sunday in Ordinary Times
Luke 12:32-48

Today's Lucan Gospel is a compilation of parables and sayings on judgment and vigilance. It also exhibits evidence of all three stages of textual development: Jesus, the church and the evangelist.

At the second level of development, within the Lucan church, the parable was understood to refer to Jesus' second coming. As his disciples, the earliest Christians were to be ever watchful and prepared for his appearance.

In its third level of development, the parable was recast by the evangelist and infused with a Passover motif. "Gird your loins and light your lamps" (v.35) was part of traditional Passover rite, which commemorated the exodus (Exod 13:11).

Peter's question (v.41) about the intended audience of the parable was not part of the original tradition and represents Luke's intention to apply the parable's message to the growing Christian community.

In its original context, the stewards or servants in Jesus' parable were the religious leaders of the people. They should have been open to what God was revealing to them in Jesus. But many were not.

This notion regarding responsibilities and punishment reflects the Jewish notion of sin. Some sin because they do not know what they should be doing; they are not conscious, therefore they are less guilty than those who sin deliberately.

For the Christians of the late first Christian century, today's Gospel underscored the certainty of Jesus' return and counseled them to be watchful and prepared. As the interim between Jesus' advent has stretched into 20 centuries, the call to exercise responsible stewardship has not diminished.

We cannot become insensitive or indifferent. Rather, we are to continue to see and serve Jesus in the poor and persecuted. We are to continue feeding him in the hungry, clothing him in the naked, healing the sick and welcoming him in the lost and the lonely.

THE WARM & LOVING EMBRACE OF DIVINE MERCY

ALL PARISHIONERS

THEME; I AM THE LORD THAT HEALETH THEE (EX. 15:26)

“ Yes I know it's hurting”!Can you hear God say that to you when you're facing what no other human being could understand ? Yes I know, sometimes you hear; other times, the noise around you seems to overshadow that still little voice of God trying to soothe your pains away. Yet , He keeps on telling you: I'M WITH YOU ALWAYS. This month we want to open up en up our hearts for God's special healing our relationships, our physique and psyche, our mistakes and hurts—yes, anything —the wrong that could not right, the misunderstandings and tensions, anything. Jesus is inviting you again to His side so He can heal you with His own wounds. Jesus I trust in You!

You're welcome!

Father James Akpan

Social Ministry Happenings

August 7, 2016

“ The constant denial of self in small things gives us the clarity of heart, mind, and soul to see the present for what it really is and the future for what it still can be. This self-denial also allows us to see ourselves for who we really are, and to see in ourselves the best-version-of-ourselves that God created us to be”. Matthew Kelly - Rediscover Jesus

Our parishioners continuously perform acts of self—denial by their gifts to those in need. May God bless you abundantly.

Here is this week’s “wish” list:

Canned Soup	Jelly	Toilet Paper
Canned Fruit	Oatmeal	Toothpaste
Canned Pasta	Rice	Toothbrush
Evaporated Milk	Spaghetti Sauce	Face Soap

Many of our clients have special prayer intentions and several of our volunteers are part of a pray chain dedicated to pray for these intentions. If you or someone you know is in need of prayer we invite you to email us at outreachsfc@gmail.com. Of course, our volunteers respect the confidentiality of all prayer request

Our Parish has many wonderful and active organizations but do you know that there is a CONSOLATION MINISTRY? At first glance you may think this a bereavement group but it is, in fact a group that meets with some family members of the recently deceased to help with the selection of readings and songs to be used at the Mass. We work in teams (3 to a team) and meet with the family members at the rectory. We also serve at the Mass for the deceased.

It is a heartwarming ministry and family members of the deceased are always receptive to any help we supply in their time of sadness and need.

At this time, we are in need of additional members (men and women) so that we can continue to serve our parish in this ministry. If you are curious and think this may be something for you to consider, please call the Rectory for more information or to find out when our next meeting will be held so you can attend.

Thank you for your consideration of this ministry. We hope to see you at our next meeting.
