Mission Statement

St. Frances Cabrini Church is a Roman Catholic parish community with ethnic diversity. Our central focus is the Eucharist from which all aspects of parish life emanate. Being a Spirit filled, prayerful and proactive parish, we foster Christian family life, evangelization, and the spiritual nourishment of all parishioners, both young and old. We endeavor to follow the example of St. Frances Cabrini and attend to all God's children in their temporal and spiritual needs in order to alleviate their suffering. We do all in the name of Jesus who is Lord and Savior of us all.

Our parish enjoys a rainbow of activities for all ages in Liturgy and in Service. If you wish to join or volunteer, please contact the rectory.

FOR THE WEEK

Living Stewardship

We are grateful this week for all stewards in our parish to see the humanity in everyone, not by judging others, but rather by serving them.

Bulletin Reflection

In today's first reading the Israelites are urged to love their neighbors as themselves. In the Gospel, Jesus spells out how we are to do that— to give generously to those who ask of us and not to turn our backs on those who ask of us and not to turn our backs on those who seek to borrow.

7th Sunday in Ordinary Time
MT 5:38-48

Today's Gospel brings us the sayings of Jesus that are probably most vulnerable to Misinterpretation and disastrous results. How many times have abused people been told to turn the other cheek? How many times have ideas from this selection been used to stop protests against injustice? How has the fatalism of the "resistance is futile" attitude become a mortal danger not just to humanity, but to the earth itself?

To grapple with this section of the Sermon on Mount we need to understand what Jesus taught about the relationships that characterize the kingdom of heaven. Preceding today's reading, Jesus talked about in house affairs, such as relationships with a brother, a husband or colleague. Now he describes how the blessed participants in the kingdom of heaven can deal with their adversaries.

As before, Jesus introduced his teaching with "You have heard. . ." and then quoted an ancient guideline designed to break cycles of increasing violence, "As eye for an eye" assured that whether the person offended was a king or peasant, no more could be exacted from the offender than the loss he had caused. That was strict justice. But, as Gandhi pointed out, while that might have stopped violence from snowballing it also created a lot of blindness, Jesus wanted his followers to see things differently.

Jesus wanted his followers to circumvent the spirals of hostility in the world, thus he taught them how to respond in a way that decreases antagonism and increases humanity. The "lex talionis," an eye for an eye, recognized objective equality in terms of damage. The alternative Jesus proposed personalized the injured party who refuses to be treated as an inferior human being becomes the greater in terms of humanity, simultaneously invite the other into a more human milieu. That sounds a bit like "The last shall be first," and it also presages how Jesus would respond to his own arrest, saying that those who live by the sword will die by it.

Jesus showed the powerlessness of brutality by proving that life prevails: he rose from the dead and the cross became a symbol of life. But as Paul admits, his message seems foolish to the world.

Nevertheless from the time of Moses on, God has called a people to be holy, which ultimately means to be caught up in and by love. Jesus' message in today's Gospel is that we were made for more than pettiness and futility and no power on earth can demean us to the point of erasing our humanity
