Mission Statement
St. Frances Cabrini Church is a Roman Catholic parish community with ethnic diversity. Our central focus is the Eucharist from which all aspects of parish life emanate. Being a Spirit filled, prayerful and proactive parish, we foster Christian family life, evangelization, and the spiritual nourishment of all parishioners, both young and old. We endeavor to follow the example of St. Frances Cabrini and attend to all God's children in their temporal and spiritual needs in order to alleviate their suffering. We do all in the name of Jesus who is Lord and Savior of us all.

Our parish enjoys a rainbow of activities for all ages in Liturgy and in Service. If you wish to join or volunteer, please contact the rectory.

Is 6:2a, 3-8 Ps 138: 1-2, 2-3,4-5, 7-8, 1 Cor. 15:1-11 or 15:3-8,11 Lk. 5:1-11

The book of Isaiah begins with the prophet’s description of his call: “In the year King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord seated on a high and lofty throne” (V1). Uzziah’s death is usually dated to the year 742 BC, so we can date the year of the prophet’s call precisely. Isaiah’s vision depicts the Lord surrounded by “seraphim” (V2), angels who serve as guards around God’s throne. These angels sing of the holiness of God, who is “holy, holy, holy” (V3), a Hebrew phrase comparable to the English describing God as “the holiest.” Isaiah’s favorite term for the Lord is “the holy one of Israel,” and throughout his text he emphasizes Israel’s call to be holy like the LORD.

Today’s Gospel narrates the call of Simon Peter. According to Luke’s chronology, this call takes place after Jesus cures Peter’s mother-in-law, unlike Mark’s chronology, in which Peter’s call precedes the miracle (see Mk1:16-18; 29-314). For Luke, the disciple responds to Jesus and his prior preaching and miracle-working. The miraculous catch of fish anticipates Jesus’s promise that “from now on you will catching men”(V9). Also unique to Luke, “they left everything” (V11); throughout his text the evangelist stresses the cost of discipleship.

Paul reminds the Corinthians of the centrality of the gospel to our faith. This “gospel I preached to you” (V1) is no human invention; he “received” (V3) it as part of a heavenly revelation. The power of the gospel results in the fact that we “are also being saved” (V2). Paul summarizes the core message: “Christ died for our sins… he was raised on the third day… [and] he appeared to [many of the disciples]”(VV3-8). Those eyewitness and recipients of divine revelation handed on to us the gospel tradition.

For reflection: Do I have a conscious sense of having been called by God for a mission? Do I strive to deepen my personal holiness?

Please note that “Prayers for the Sick” will be announced from the altar for 4 weeks. Then the names will be in the bulletin for another 4 weeks. Please inform the Rectory if you wish to add a loved one for prayers, or to have someone’s name removed.

Please continue to pray for all those who are sick in our Parish

January 21, 2016

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

The Diocese of Rockville Centre will join all the dioceses of the nation in celebrating National Catholic Schools Week from January 31st – February 6, 2016. The theme for this year is Catholic Schools – Communities of Faith, Knowledge and Service. This theme encompasses concepts that are at the heart of Catholic education. Our schools strive to build community, share faith, increase our students’ knowledge and encourage dedication to service. Each time I am in one of our schools I encounter teachers, administrators, and parents committed to making sure that each student lives up to his or her potential to learn and to be formed in the Catholic faith.

Catholic schools have a rich history in supporting the work of on-going evangelization of the Catholic community in the United States. Our schools are built on the bedrock of the teachers and administrators who dedicate their time and talents to educating all children. We must also recognize our priests, religious and support staff for the work they do each and every day to spread the Gospel to our young people. Together we make great things happen on a daily basis in our Catholic schools.

Our Diocese has much to be proud of. Our Catholic elementary and high schools are wonderful examples of academic and spiritual excellence. Our schools are committed to always growing in faith and living the Gospel. We invite you to come and see this for yourselves during Catholic Schools Week where you will experience our Communities of Faith, Knowledge and Service.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Bishop of Rockville Centre

LENT 2016

'Merciful, Like the Father'

"YEAR OF MERCY"

"FILLED WITH THE HOLY SPIRIT, JESUS RETURNED FROM THE JORDAN AND WAS LED BY THE SPIRIT INTO THE DESERT FOR FORTY DAYS, TO BE TEMPTED BY THE DEVIL. HE ATE NOTHING DURING THOSE DAYS, AND WHEN THEY WERE OVER HE WAS HUNGRY". JESUS WAS TEMPTED BY THE DEVIL TO USE HIS DIVINE AND HUMAN POWERS ONLY FOR HIS OWN PERSONAL DESIRES RATHER THAN TO USE THEM GENEROUSLY AND UNSELFISHLY FOR OTHERS ACCORDING TO GOD'S PLAN OF REDEMPTION.

DURING LENT, WE PRACTICE DISCIPLINES THAT ARE AIMED AT PURIFYING AND TRANSFORMING OUR LIVES, TO HELP US RISE WITH CHRIST TO THE OFTEN HARSH CHALLENGES OF SELF-GIVING LOVE.

Prayer is a recognition that we need help to turn back to God. From daily Mass to the Rosary to Centering Prayer to the Stations of the Cross to Eucharistic Adoration, the Church encourages a wealth of prayerful practices. A very simple way to pray is to sit quietly for a moment before taking up one of the Gospels and slowly reading a passage that you like. Simply sit with the passage for a bit, savoring the Word and allowing it to touch you, read it again slowly, and then respond to God.

Fasting and abstinence practiced as the Church instructs is a good beginning. A bodily way to remind ourselves that we need God above all things, fasting is also a sacrifice, a gift back to God of our heart's intent to depend more completely on God. The interior free desire to deepen our relationship to God is the essence of a Lenten fast.

Almsgiving readjusts our priorities while it expresses both our love of neighbor and our trust in God. A free gift to those in need confirms our basic trust in Providence while concretely helping those in need. Just as we fast without starving ourselves, so we give alms without jeopardizing our security or that of our family. The point is to give from the heart.

From time to time we stop to honor one of our special volunteers. Mr. John Beekmen certainty qualifies for this special mark of appreciation. John comes every Friday and accomplished many tasks. He can be the voice of our social ministry to the many callers, who need help and encouragement. He can file or find client files with speed. He is always willing to help people bring in large cases of food. He just gets right to the assignment and completes it. His most outstanding qualities are steadfastness and reliability.

Thanks for a job well done John!

Senior Club

If you are bored or lonely and would like to meet new people come on down to the Parish Hall of St. Frances Cabrini.

St. Frances Cabrini Senior Club started in 1995 and has continued to help the parish grow. Our meetings are on Wednesday and the door open at 10 o’clock. Just bring a mug or tea cup and enjoy a cup of coffee or a cup of tea and meet and mingle with other people in their senior years. The meeting starts at 11:30 and after the meeting you can enjoy bingo, cards left right center, or start a game of your own, all for a dollar. We have pizza and ice cream parties, a Christmas lunch and a picnic in June to close out the year. There are day trips and we are always open to new suggestions. Birthdays are celebrated monthly with $5 for each person in that month according to your attendance at the meetings. We have 50/50 drawings each week as well a door prize that you can win $5.

Where else can you spend so little and get so much and so close to home. Hope to see you soon. For information call: Joan Brennan at 631 698–0094

A heartfelt conversion leads to Christ

During Lent, the Church invites us to purify our souls so we can begin again at Easter. We do this in the Sacrament of Reconciliation, and by converting our hearts, our goods, and our time to God’s purposes.

Convert heart. Jesus sparks renewal in a contrite heart, one that acknowledges its weaknesses and sins and is prepared to change. True conversion is demonstrated when we put new heart into our work or study and in the way we care for our family or friends. When we make life more pleasant for those around us and make our work more effective, we strengthen our conversion.

Convert goods. Earthly goods are not bad in themselves, but we can’t focus on acquiring goods and still be dedicated to holiness. Christ can’t fill a heart bogged down with earthly distractions. Instead, convert your possessions into instruments for God’s purposes. What God can’t use, give away.

Convert time. Picture Lent as a time when Christ is calling each of us to draw closer to him again. If we stay close to Christ, we will always find the strength to overcome the weaknesses and defects in ourselves that we can’t conquer on our own. Use whatever free time you may have this season to pray, meditate, and read about Christ to learn and love him better.

Why do Catholics gesture during the Confiteor?

Prayers involve the mind, heart, voice, and body. When our bodies also participate, we tend to pray with greater attention. For this reason, during the Confiteor, we strike our breasts at the words, “through my own fault.” Striking one’s breast is an ancient symbol of repentance and sorrow. In the Confiteor, we recognize and profess sorrow for our sins by word and deed. This helps prepare us for a more holy participation in the sacred Eucharistic celebration that itself can affect reparation for sins.
