In today's Gospel, Peter recognizes Jesus as the Christ, the Son of the living God. Upon this rock of faith, Christ says, He will build His Church.

When we give to the poor, God indeed pours his love, peace and joy into our hearts, into our lives and into the hearts of those who are poor.

Finding Hope in God's Unexpected Gifts by John Berry, SVdP National President

When life is at its lowest, hope can arrive in the most unexpected ways. Sometimes, it is a kind word from a stranger, a sunrise after a sleepless night, or a song that plays just when you need it most. Other times, it is the unwavering support of a friend, a passage of scripture that speaks directly to your pain, or a sudden sense of peace that defies explanation. These are not coincidences; they are reminders that God is present, working behind the scenes, orchestrating moments of grace.

Receiving hope from God is not a passive act; it requires openness and vulnerability. When we close ourselves off in bitterness or despair, we risk missing the subtle ways God is trying to reach us. Opening our hearts means being willing to see beyond our pain, to look for signs of grace even when circumstances seem bleak.

Often, and powerfully, God's hope comes through the people around us. This is why Friendship is such a vital and important Essential Element of our Vincentian charism. A supportive community can be a lifeline in times of trouble

So too, is our Essential Element of Service. Acts of kindness, no matter how small, can be powerful reminders of God's presence. A meal delivered to a grieving family, a note of encouragement, or a listening ear can be the very thing that helps someone hold on. In giving and receiving compassion, we take part in the divine work of bringing hope to a hurting world.

In the end, hope is not the denial of suffering, but the assurance that suffering is not the end of the story. By opening our hearts to God's gifts, we allow ourselves to be surprised by grace, to find light in the darkness, and to discover that, even when life is at its worst, we are never without hope.

Monthly Intentions and Development for Spiritual Adoption June

In the 4th month of spiritual adoption we pray for wise counsel and support from clergy, advisers, friends, relatives and grandparents who will recognize the child as a new member of the family.

The baby now can squint, swallow and move her tongue. She sleeps and awakens. Fingernails and toenails form and she now has her own unique set of fingerprints. Sensitive to touch she will tightly grasp an object placed in the palm of her hand. She breathes amniotic fluid to help develop and strengthen the respiratory system, but she gets the oxygen she needs through the umbilical cord, she is about three inches "tall" and weighs one ounce.

Did you know that our altar servers are doing some amazing work in our community, parish and in their schools while continuing to serve in the Mass each week? Here are just a few highlights to end the school year:

Prayer of St. Francis of Assisi

Lord, make me an instrument of Your peace;
Where there is hatred, let me sow love;
Where there is injury, pardon;
Where there is doubt, faith;
Where there is despair, hope;
Where there is darkness, light;
And where there is sadness, joy.

O Divine Master,
Grant that I may not so much seek
To be consoled as to console;
To be understood, as to understand;
To be loved, as to love;
For it is in giving that we receive,
It is in pardoning that we are pardoned,
And it is in dying that we are born to
Eternal Life.
Amen.

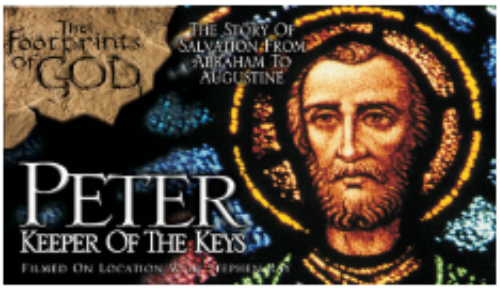
Peter: Keeper of the Keys

When a young Christian girl is arrested and imprisoned in ancient Rome, she hears stories of martyrs like St. Catherine of Alexandria and St. Lawrence the Deacon—will she find the strength to make the ultimate sacrifice for her faith?

Paul the Apostle | The Bible Collection

The church's greatest enemy became Christ's most prolific messenger. Beautifully shot in the Moroccan desert, Paul the Apostle is a sweeping saga of the man who brought the Gospel to the Western world.



Peter: Keeper of the Keys

He is called the Rock, the Fisher of Men, and the Head of the Church. But how did Peter, a rustic fisherman, come to deserve such honor and authority? Join Stephen Ray as he follows Peter from Galilee to Jerusalem to Rome.
