TO SET UP AN APPOINTMENT WITH DEACON SONNY PAGNOTTA

In this Sunday's Gospel, we find that Jesus "… went around all of Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, proclaiming the gospel of the kingdom, and curing every disease and illness among the people."

In the month of January, through your gifts, we are able to assist several families, providing food, furniture, utilities, rent, bills, baby supplies, etc. Thank You for your continued support & generosity!!!

In the past week, we provided much needed furniture to several families, including one where there were no beds and they were sleeping on the cold floor.

We were overrun with requests for financial support for rent. We scrambled to find donors but were not able to assist everyone.

The beauty of our home visits is we get to meet people in their time of need and help them figure out a result that can move their lives forward.

The heartbreak is to look into their eyes and hearts, and those of their children, and have to tell them that we don't have an answer or the funds to assist them.

"None of us can help everyone. But all of us can help someone. And when we help them, we serve Jesus. Who would want to miss a chance to do that?" - Max Lucado from Outlive Your Life

Are you coming? That is our invitation to open your hearts to those who need your blessing.

A Day in the Life of a Vincentian…….

We were blessed this week when one of the Knights of Columbus accompanied us on two home visits. He got to experience the love and emotion of our neighbors as they open their homes, their hearts and their families to us.

One visit was the first time we met them and we left encouraged that an answer is not far off and were so encouraged by their devotion and faith during this adversity. The second is a family we have been working with for an extended time frame. We shared their continuing challenge to avoid eviction. A mother and three children doing all they can to keep their family together. When we left, we could see our Knight guest was visibly affected by the visit.

While he has been an advocate and supporter of SVdP, the experience of meeting the people in need "added color and emotion to our weekly stories to you". A blessing for all involved.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

As we celebrate Catholic Schools Week, I give thanks for the extraordinary gift of Catholic education and for the students, families, educators, clergy, and benefactors who make our schools thrive across Long Island.

This year's observance begins on Word of God Sunday, reminding us that Sacred Scripture is not merely studied, but proclaimed, prayed, and lived. In our Catholic schools, the Word of God forms minds and hearts and draws students into a lifelong relationship with Jesus Christ, the Word made flesh.

Our Catholic schools remain steadfast in four essential commitments. First, to be robustly Catholic, rooted in daily prayer, the sacraments, and fidelity to the teachings of the Church. Under the patronage of St. Thomas Aquinas and St. John Henry Newman, co-patrons of Catholic education, we affirm that faith and reason are not rivals but companions, leading the mind to truth and the heart to God.

Second, to be academically excellent, forming the whole person. Guided by St. Thomas Aquinas's love for truth and inspired by St. John Henry Newman's vision of education, our schools cultivate intellectual rigor, disciplined inquiry, and thoughtful engagement with the world.

Third, to be safe and supportive, honoring the dignity of every child and fostering communities where students are known, protected, and encouraged. Finally, to be here to stay, strengthened through responsible stewardship and shared mission across parishes, families, and benefactors.

As Pope Leo XIV has reminded the Church, "education is not an ancillary activity, but forms the very fabric of evangelization: it is the concrete way in which the Gospel becomes an educational gesture, a relationship, a culture."[1] Our schools exist so that students may discover their God-given dignity, discern their vocation, and learn to live lives of joyful witness to Jesus Christ.

As we conclude Catholic Schools Week with the witness of St. John Bosco, I ask you to pray for our Catholic schools, support them generously, and encourage families to consider the profound gift of a Catholic education.

May the Word of God continue to be a light for our homes, parishes, and schools.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+ John O. Barres

Let's put the soup into Super Bowl LX

Vote for your Super Bowl team

Bring a can of soup or two and place the can (s) in the team box of your choice before mass, in the front of the altar

All donations will go to St. Frances food pantry

(please check expiration dates)

Ash Wednesday is February 18th

Do you have old palm from last Palm Sunday? If so we can use it to make ashes for Ash Wednesday. If you would like to bring in your old palm to church, just see one of the ushers who will be happy to take it from you. Or you can bring it to the rectory during normal business hours. Please drop off palm before February 8th to give us time to burn it for Ash Wednesday. Thanks

Abstinence and Fasting

All Catholics who have reached their fourteenth year are bound to abstain entirely from meat/poultry on Ash Wednesday and all the Fridays of Lent. All Catholics between the ages of eighteen and fifty-nine inclusive are also bound to observe the law of fast on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. This means limiting oneself to a single full meal and avoiding food between meals. Two other light meals, which together do not equal a full meal, may be taken during the day. Those whose work or health would be impaired are excused from fast and abstinence. Individual conscience should decide proper cause for excuse. A more serious reason is required to excuse oneself from Ash Wednesday and Good Friday fast and abstinence.

Gabby's WONDERFUL WORLD

I'm supporting Gabby's Wonderful World.

Hi everyone! My name is Gabby Zeppieri and I am the president of Gabby's Wonderful World. Gabby's Wonderful World is a nonprofit foundation committed to championing all individuals and families affected by Neutral Lipid Storage Disease with Myopathy (NLSD-M), an ultra- rare genetic condition. NLSD-M is a progressive disease that causes harmful lipid buildup in the skeletal muscles, leading to significant physical challenges.

I'm doing the NYC Brooklyn Half Marathon for myself—because being diagnosed with NLSD-M changed my life, but it didn't get to define it. When you hear a diagnosis like that, your world narrows for a moment. You think about limits, about everything that might become harder, slower, uncertain. But then you get to make a choice. And I chose to move forward. I chose strength. I chose purpose.

A very special friend came to me and said we would be crossing the finish line together. I physically cannot walk/run the marathon. She will be pushing me the whole way! Every mile I cross is a reminder that my diagnosis is part of my story, not the end of it. It's a reminder that I can show up for myself, even on the hard days. Especially on the hard days.

This race is my declaration:
I am still here. I am still strong. And I'm not done yet.

Prayer for Hope

Heavenly father, I am your humble servant, I come before you today in need of hope. There are times when I feel helpless, There are times when I feel weak. I pray for hope. I need hope for a better future. I need hope for a better life. I need hope for love and kindness. Some say that the sky is at it's darkest just before the light. I pray that this is true, for all seems dark. I need your light, Lord, in every way. I pray to be filled with your light from head to toe. To bask in your glory. To know that even though the world seems upside down, You alone can bring about light from darkness. Help me to walk in your light, and live my life in faith and glory.

In your name I pray, Amen.

St. Thomas Aquinas | Catholic Saints

St. Thomas Aquinas was given one of the greatest minds in history. He devoted his life to studying God. Not only did St. Thomas cover almost all of theology, but he also did it while maintaining theological accuracy.

Don Bosco: The True Story of the Apostle of Youth

Don Bosco is the inspiring true story of a brave and holy priest. Blessed with tremendous gifts, a creative imagination, and a great sense of humor, Bosco had a winning way with youth and was a brilliant educator.

Saint John Bosco: Mission to Love

Flavio Insinna gives a winning performance as John Bosco, the great priest and educator of youth. Beautifully filmed in Italy, this epic movie dramatizes the many challenges that he had to overcome from his childhood all the way to founding his religious order.
