A Message from Father Greg

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

This weekend's Gospel provides a timely and beautiful reflection as we prepare to celebrate the ordination of three men from our diocese to the sacred priesthood next Saturday, June 20th. Jesus tells His disciples, "The harvest is abundant but the laborers are few; so ask the master of the harvest to send out laborers for his harvest." These words have echoed through the centuries and remain as relevant today as when they were first spoken.

We often hear concerns about the challenges facing the Church and the need for more vocations to the priesthood. Yet in these three men – Patrick O'Brien, Dillon Vita, and Nicholas Waldron – we see a tangible answer to the prayers of countless faithful who have asked the Lord to send laborers into His harvest. Their willingness to follow God's call is a sign of hope and a reminder that Christ continues to raise up shepherds to serve His people. The priesthood is a profound gift to the Church. Through the ministry of priests, Christ remains present among us in a unique way. Through their hands, the Eucharist is consecrated, sins are forgiven, the Gospel is preached, and God's people are accompanied through every stage of life. A priest's life is one of joyful service, rooted in a deep love for Jesus and His Church.

As these men prepare for ordination, I invite you to keep them especially in your prayers. Pray that they may remain faithful to the promises they will make before God and His Church. Pray that they may be strengthened by the Holy Spirit and grow each day in holiness, humility, and zeal for souls. Pray also for the people they will one day serve, that their ministry may bear abundant fruit.

The Lord's words about the harvest are also a challenge to all of us. Every parish and every family has a role in fostering vocations. We should never hesitate to encourage young people to listen for God's voice and to consider where He may be leading them. Most importantly, we must continue to pray that the Master of the Harvest will send more laborers into His vineyard.

Let us give thanks to God for the gift of these three soon-to-be priests. May their example inspire others to respond generously to God's call. Through the intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of Priests, may they be blessed with faithful and fruitful ministries for many years to come.

Sincerely yours in Christ,
Fr. Greg

P.S. – After I attend the priestly ordination next Saturday, I'll be taking my annual retreat until the following Friday. You can watch the ordinations on Catholic Faith Network on June 20th at 11:00am. Please keep me and all the priests who serve in our diocese in your prayers.

Have you considered answering the call to join us in the Society of St. Vincent de Paul? (See the posting below for further information.)
We are currently managing 11 active cases after just closing 3 others.
-We are going to court on 6/17 to assist a neighbor in working out a rent payment plan.
-Three families need beds and kitchen tables.
-Two families are moving as a result of pending evictions and need help with their rent.
-A woman needs assistance with the cost of moving to a new apartment after losing hers.
-A woman with 3 young children is living in a shelter after the husband/father abandoned them and refuses to help them. She was working around the daycare hours to provide food & necessities for her family. And then the transmission dies on her car. She couldn't work and care for her family. It was a repair beyond our means. The big & generous hearts of our Knights of Columbus stepped up and provided part of the repair money and the SVdP District council provided the balance.
When you see a Knight, be sure to show them your gratitude for helping our Walking with the Vincentians-The above story opens with the question about answering the call to join us.

Let's start by acknowledging that the entire parish, from Pastors to parishioners, have already joined us. You are with us in prayer, donations and gratitude expressed. Your support means the world to us.
We are going to ask for it in another way in the coming weeks. In September, we have the annual "Friends of the Poor Walk". Every SVdP conference in the nation walks that day to raise money to help our mission. Our local Society-that of the Diocese of Rockville Centre, has the largest walk in the entire country!
We are going to ask you to join us in a variety of ways that are tailored to you—you can actually walk with us, you can donate, you can solicit donations of people and businesses in the area, you can come to other parishes that don't have SVdP to raise awareness and participation of the walk, etc.
Stay tuned…...MORE TO FOLLOW!!!
