Mission Statement

St. Frances Cabrini Church is a Roman Catholic parish community with ethnic diversity. Our central focus is the Eucharist from which all aspects of parish life emanate. Being a Spirit filled, prayerful and proactive parish, we foster Christian family life, evangelization, and the spiritual nourishment of all parishioners, both young and old. We endeavor to follow the example of St. Frances Cabrini and attend to all God's children in their temporal and spiritual needs in order to alleviate their suffering. We do all in the name of Jesus who is Lord and Savior of us all.

Our parish enjoys a rainbow of activities for all ages in Liturgy and in Service. If you wish to join or volunteer, please contact the rectory.

For Our Father

A Message from Father Greg

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

This past week, we came together as a parish family to grieve the death of our dear friend and pastor, Fr. Gil. The immense outpouring of love and compassion from every corner of our community is a testament to this kind and generous priest who lived to serve others. As I mentioned last Sunday, I'm probably the newest parishioner to St. Frances Cabrini and already I've heard many stories of how Fr. Gil touched the lives of countless people. I had the pleasure of knowing Fr. Gil since my ordination. Like you, I recognized such humility and gentleness in Fr. Gil. He was always unassuming, without pretense, and sharp as a tac. He will be greatly missed by all who knew and loved him.

I would like to express on behalf of his family their gratitude for all of the support you gave Fr. Gil over the years, most especially during this last year when Fr. Gil began his battle with cancer and the complications that followed. At every Mass and gathering, he was remembered in prayer. Those prayers did not go unanswered. While absent from our midst far sooner than any of us would have ever wanted, we can be confident that Fr. Gil now stands before the Lord and beholds him face to face. To all those who helped to make the services around Fr Gil's funeral – our professional staff, Knights of Columbus, Columbiettes, CDA, and many others – thank you for giving so generously of your time to ensure that everything was done for Fr. Gil and his family with dignity.

On Wednesday evening during the Mass of Transferal for Fr. Gil, I borrowed the image of a sailor who packed the parachutes for fighter pilots engaged in air missions during the Vietnam War. I compared those sailors to Fr. Gil – a person who packed others' parachutes. He did so by his ability to sit and listen, hearing about people's heartaches and joys, successes and failures. Fr. Gil indeed packed the spiritual parachutes of so many. I encourage you in these days of mourning to think of a way – big or small – that Fr. Gil "packed your parachute," and then offer a prayer for his eternal repose. I am certain that is what he would like above all.

I also ask your prayers for me and my brother priests who assist here at St. Frances. We desire nothing more than to share the joy of the Gospel and the richness of our Catholic Faith with you all. We are diminished by Fr. Gil's passing, but it only emboldens us to carry on his legacy with all the more ardor. We grieve in these days, to be sure, but we grieve as St. Paul instructs us – as people of hope! May the good Lord grant perfect rest to Fr. Gil in the joys of heaven and may we honor his life but taking his good example and putting it into practice by packing others' parachutes with faith, joy, and hope.

Sincerely yours in Christ,
Fr. Greg

Prayer of St. Francis of Assisi

Lord, make me an instrument of Your peace;
Where there is hatred, let me sow love;
Where there is injury, pardon;
Where there is doubt, faith;
Where there is despair, hope;
Where there is darkness, light;
And where there is sadness, joy.

O Divine Master,
Grant that I may not so much seek
To be consoled as to console;
To be understood, as to understand;
To be loved, as to love;
For it is in giving that we receive,
It is in pardoning that we are pardoned,
And it is in dying that we are born to Eternal Life.
Amen.

A TESTAMENT TO WHAT LOVE, CHARITY & SERVICE TRULY MEANS

There aren't enough pages in the bulletin to share with you what Fr. Gil has done to assist the community and SVdP in assisting the community. We all knew Fr. Gil, the priest & the pastor. The author had the distinct privilege of knowing Fr. Gil, the man. While he was humble and quiet, his heart was overflowing with love for all of you and for the community as a whole. It was that love and heart that supported ALL of the wonderful service we have been able to provide. But it goes well past that. Fr. Gil used his own money to take care of neighbors when the situation warranted it. He was not concerned with where the person lived, but with what they needed. He would call and ask us to see people in need as far away as Holbrook, because no one else would help them. Fr. Gill managed the care of several homeless and or sheltered people. We would help move their possessions or deliver their medicine so they wouldn't lose it.

We have quietly mentioned him in prior bulletins, and I say quietly because he didn't want any recognition. He just wanted people served. He embodied what true servant leadership was about ->>

We wanted to show our gratitude to him. We had a hand drawn picture of St. Vincent de Paul made and he said it was too big. We offered a portrait of him, his family or anything he would like. His ever so humble reply—I would like a tub of baking paste so he could make cookies for people. I thought he was joking. When I delivered it to the rectory, he was most appreciative. He found joy in helping others.

The spirit, heart & love that Fr. Gil embodied will live on. He is the light that is in not only the hearts of the Society, but in each and everyone one of you. He truly loved his parishioners. If you met him once, he knew your name and remembered it. He asked nothing of anyone and gave everything to everyone.

Please keep his spirit alive with love and caring for each other, your families, your parish family and society as a whole. While Fr. Gil has entered eternal peace, he will live on in our hearts. Please treasure all that he taught us and embodied. May the Peace of Christ be with Fr. Gil and all of us.

.Many stores are having their Back to School Sales now so this would be a wonderful opportunity to pick up some items at low prices. School will be starting before we know it and many of our clients are in need of assistance with obtaining supplies for their children. Following is a list of some of the items Longwood is requiring for their students. Please, if you are able to donate a few items it would be a great help. God bless you.

Please do not leave food or any items outside of the pantry which may be ruined if left in inclement weather. We thank you for your kindness and generosity.

OUR GROCERY LIST

We have a number of clients who have restrictive diets so when shopping please keep in mind those who require a low sodium or sugar free foods. Thank you.

CATHOLIC FORMATION SERIES #1

DO'S AND DON'TS BEFORE MASS

Let us prepare our hearts to worthily celebrate the Holy Mass.

DO

Arrive early
Give yourself time to prepare.

Pray quietly
Spend time talking with God.

Silence your phone
Turn it off or set it to silent mode.

Dress respectfully
Wear modest and decent attire.

Prepare your intentions
Offer your prayers and needs to the Lord.

DON'T

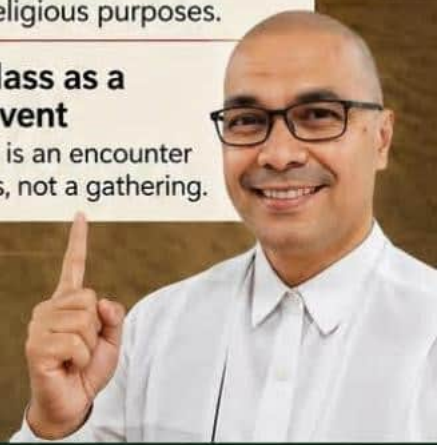
Arrive habitually late
Lateness shows lack of respect for God.

Talk loudly
Keep conversations outside the church.

Distract others
Respect those who are praying.

Use phone unnecessarily
Avoid using your phone for non-religious purposes.

Treat Mass as a social event
The Mass is an encounter with Jesus, not a gathering.



COMMENT "AMEN" IF YOU PREPARE YOUR HEART BEFORE MASS.
