Mission Statement

St. Frances Cabrini Church is a Roman Catholic parish community with ethnic diversity. Our central focus is the Eucharist from which all aspects of parish life emanate. Being a Spirit filled, prayerful and proactive parish, we foster Christian family life, evangelization, and the spiritual nourishment of all parishioners, both young and old. We endeavor to follow the example of St. Frances Cabrini and attend to all God's children in their temporal and spiritual needs in order to alleviate their suffering. We do all in the name of Jesus who is Lord and Savior of us all.

Our parish enjoys a rainbow of activities for all ages in Liturgy and in Service. If you wish to join or volunteer, please contact the rectory.

Bread and Wine For World Peace

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

By now, you have certainly heard the news that Bishop Barres has appointed, beginning October 1st, a new Parochial Administrator for our parish. Fr. Charles Mangano, who currently serves at Our Lady of Lourdes in West Islip, will succeed me in the stewardship of St. Frances Cabrini. In mid-August, Fr. Charles and I met for several hours here at the parish. He also met with some of the staff and volunteers who help run things on a daily basis. In addition, I gave Father an overview of the many ministries and groups that are the lifeblood of St. Frances. During our time together, something interesting happened. As I continued introducing people and explaining the ins and outs of our parish, I suddenly realized how attached I have become to this community since my formal arrival as Administrator in early April. Despite the sad circumstances requiring me to serve here, I can honestly say that I feel a particular closeness to all of you. I know that over his tenure Fr. Charles will feel the same and, in order for him to get to know St. Frances better, we have planned in the next couple of weeks for him to meet the entire staff as well as the leaders of all the various groups. Stay tuned for more updates about this transition of leadership.

This weekend is that all-too-familiar ritual of returning to “normal” routines – whatever that means! With the beginning of school, the pastoral year commencing, and the start of changes in the weather, we are reminded of the call to begin regularly something new within ourselves. The spiritual life is about changing day by day so as to become better reflections of our God in Whose image and likeness we are made. In short, our goal is to become like Jesus and to imitate Him in our way of life.

Labor Day Weekend is also a meaningful time for Catholics to reflect on the dignity of work and the importance of rest. As we celebrate the contributions of workers and enjoy time with family and friends, we are reminded that every form of honest work has value because it allows us to use the gifts God has given us to serve others and contribute to our communities. Catholic teaching encourages us to treat workers with justice, respect, and compassion while also recognizing the need for rest and time with loved ones. This Labor Day Weekend, we can thank God for the opportunity to work, to pray for those who face unemployment or difficult working conditions, and to remember that our worth ultimately comes, not from our jobs or accomplishments, but from being loved by God.

May God bless you and your families. Please keep me and my brother clergy in your prayers, as you are in ours every day!

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Fr. Greg

ADULT FAITH FORMATION

PLEASE CALL THE RECTORY AT 631-732-8445
TO SET UP AN APPOINTMENT WITH DEACON SONNY PAGNOTTA

In today's Gospel, Jesus says: "…where two or three are gathered in my name, there am I in the midst of them." Is there a family you know who needs assistance? Please call us at 631.984.3961 so that together we help them to know that indeed "God is in the midst of them."

On August 28th, Pope Leo XIV met with volunteers from the SVdP Society. He told them, "indeed, by freely offering your God-given gifts, you give eloquent witness to your faith in service to building up the kingdom of God. I encourage you to deepen your relationship with our Lord so that his Grace may continue to guide and strengthen your service. The SVdP society shows that prayer and social justice are not just complementary but are, in fact, inseparable. It is my hope that you will continue to turn to your heavenly patron in order to follow his example and seek his intercession, We believe that caring for others not only helps those in need, but, opens the heart of the giver to God's grace. With God's grace, we will recognize Christ in our neighbors, both in those we serve and with those you work. As you return home, you are accompanied by my prayers."

What greater support & blessing can we ask for? Please let his words resonate with your heart and you will see the Pope's words echoing many of the thoughts & feelings we have shared with you.

We have asked for, and continue to ask for, your support and to consider joining us. We can't say it any clearer than the Holy Father did above.

Walking with the Vincentians…..We are still getting great feedback from our neighbors and participants for the recent BBQ. Your love and support were on clear display. Please go to our website to see the brief video. You can view it at: www.svdpcabrini.org/gallery

The chance to serve our neighbors, re-energized us as the requests for assistance continued to come in.

-A woman lost her child support and needed help paying her rent.

-A mother with a blind & autistic child is being evicted from her basement apartment because the landlord wants the basement back. We are helping her get support from DSS and figuring out the next step.

-A neighbor needed help paying for the U-Haul rental to move to a new apartment.

Not every request is big. Sometimes people need just a little assist to get over the bump. Your continued support makes more of a difference than you might imagine. Thank you all!!

Venerable Fulton Sheen to be beatified in St. Louis on September 24th

www.celebratesheen.com

The late American Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen will be beatified at a Mass presided over by Cardinal Luis Antonio Tagle on September 24, 2026, in St. Louis, Missouri, according to the Dicastery for the Causes of Saints. Cardinal Luis Antonio Tagle, Pro-Prefect of the Dicastery for Evangelization, will preside at the beatification Mass, representing Pope Leo XIV. The Mass, airing live on EWTN, will begin at 2 p.m., and immediately following the Mass a relic of Sheen will be made available for veneration until 6 p.m. After his heroic virtue was recognized, Fulton Sheen was declared Venerable in 2012 by Pope Benedict XVI. In 2019, Pope Francis authorized a decree recognizing a miracle through his intercession. This recognition cleared Archbishop Sheen for beatification, after which he will have the title "Blessed." The future Blessed Fulton Sheen was known for his dynamic preaching, especially on television and radio. Born to an Irish family in El Paso, Illinois, on May 8, 1895, Sheen discovered his call to the priesthood at the age of 24 and was ordained a priest in 1919. He pursued higher studies at the Catholic University of America in Washington (US), the Catholic University of Leuven (Belgium), and the Pontifical University of St. Thomas Aquinas in Rome. He returned to the U.S. in 1926 and began teaching at the Catholic University of America, a position he held until 1950. Sheen served as the Bishop of Rochester, New York, from 1951 to 1969, and Pope Paul VI later appointed him as the Titular Archbishop of Newport, Wales, in 1969. A gifted teacher and speaker, Sheen's homilies were much appreciated. In 1930, he began participating in the Sunday radio program entitled "The Catholic Hour," which reached an estimated four million listeners at the height of its popularity. In 1951, he began hosting a weekly television series, "Life is Worth Living," on matters of faith that attracted some 30 million viewers. He died in New York at the age of 84, on December 9, 1979.
